

Douglas as Ninso Chaptgood AND Richard as Announcer (READ BOTH IN DIFFERENT VOICES)

START

(MUSIC: NED plays the Ninso Family Quiz theme.)

RICHARD. Hello, everyone! It's time once again for a Ninso Family Quiz. I'm here with the head of the household, Mr. Hans Chaptgood. Tell me, Mr. Chaptgood, who does the dishwashing in your family?

DOUGLAS as CHAPTGOOD. Why, my wife, of course. I dry and our daughter, Buffy, puts away.

RICHARD. Really? And does your wife's hands get all rough and red from this daily chore?

DOUGLAS as CHAPTGOOD. Not at all. My wife uses the 1943 Top Speed Ninso for dishes as well as the weeks wash.

RICHARD. You don't say! And, Mr. Chaptgood, what do you and your family do after the dishes are done?

DOUGLAS as CHAPTGOOD. Why, we go to the living room, sit down and listen to good, wholesome family entertainment on the WSCC Radio Network.

RICHARD. How about that? Remember, folks! If you and your family use the 1943 Top Speed Ninso for dishes as well as the weeks wash, you too will have plenty of time to enjoy our fine family programming. We'll be back in the second portion of the show to talk with the mother and daughter of the Chaptgood family.

Douglas as Farmer Fred

END

START

DOUGLAS as FARMER FRED. Hello there, folks. Farmer Fred here. Hey, all you farmers out there. Serve yourself up the modern way with Whiteside Gasateria. The new gas station and eatery. You can fill your tank and get lunch too! All in one easy stop. So remember, it's just drive up...

(SOUND: Horn honks.)

...and filler up. And then, take time out for lunch. It's the best food on the road, the finest spot on the thoroughfare to eat and get gas.

(SOUND: Horn honks.) END

START

KATHERINE as MADAME X. This is Madame "X," the intriguing reporter on assignment for Lax A, the world famous candied laxative. The good people at the Lax A company asked me to pack my bags and spare no expense to travel across this great land of ours to find out what the regular people of America thought about their product. Here are a few of the comments I got...

(MUSIC: NED plays peppy bridge.)

JESSICA. Effective! I tried everything but nothing relieved me until I took Lax A.

END

Katherine as Trudy Trimble

START

KATHERINE. Hello, everyone! It's time once again for Trudy's Trade-in Corner. This is Trudy Trimble with items for trade or sale.

For sale: A four-poster bed, 101 years old. Perfect for antique lovers.

Tired of cleaning yourself? Let me do it. Call Gloria's Home Cleaning today at Murray Hill 7-8402.

For sale: An antique desk suitable for lady with thick legs and large drawers.

Dog for sale. Will eat anything. Fond of children.

That's all for today. Join us once again next time for Trudy's Trade-in Corner. Back to you, Richard.

(MUSIC: NED plays the Ninso Family Quiz theme.)

END

RICHARD. Well, how about that! Look, here comes your daughter, Mrs. Chaptgood. And what is your name?

LOIS as BUFFY. Buffy.

RICHARD. Buffy, would you like to take the Ninso Family Quiz?

LOIS as BUFFY. Gee, whiz.

RICHARD. Now, tell me Buffy. How old are you?

LOIS as BUFFY. I am seventeen years old.

RICHARD. Seventeen years old.

LOIS as BUFFY. What did I win?

RICHARD. No, Buffy. Ha, ha, ha. That wasn't the quiz question. This is the quiz question. And it's simply this. Buffy...

LOIS as BUFFY. Yes...

RICHARD. Do you ever help with the family dishes?

LOIS as BUFFY. I should say not! Gee, whiz. I would simply die.

RICHARD. Well, let's have a little demonstration. Buffy, would you put your hands right up there next to your mother's?

LOIS as BUFFY. Oh, for sure.

RICHARD. Gee, I can't tell the difference!

LOIS as BUFFY. That's because mother uses the new 1943 Top Speed Ninso for dishes as well as the week's wash. Gee, ain't that swell?

RICHARD. It sure is, Buffy. Ladies, for younger looking hands like Mrs. Chaptgood's here, be sure to use the all new 1943 Top Speed Ninso.